ST CHAD'S
ANGLICAN-METHODIST CHURCH
A WARM WELCOME
TO OUR 10.00am SERVICE
17th JUNE 2018
ST PATRICK'S CHURCH
WORSHIP WITH HOLY COMMUNION

PSALM 138

I will praise thee, O Lord, with all my heart;
Boldy, O God, I will sing psalms to thee
I will bow down towards thy holy temple,
For thy love and faithfulness I will praise thy name;
For thou hast made thy promise wide as the heavens.
When I called to thee thou didst answer me
And make me bold and valiant-hearted.
Let all the kings of the earth praise thee, O Lord,
When they hear the words thou hast spoken;
And let them sing of the Lord's ways,
For great is the glory of the Lord.
For the Lord, high as he is, cares for the lowly,
And from afar he humbles the proud.
Though I walk among foes thou dost preserve my life,
Exerting thy power against the rage of my enemies,
And with thy right hand thou savest me.
The Lord will accomplish his purpose for me;

St Chad's Regular Worship with Holy Communion every Sunday at St Patrick's Except for the 3rd Sunday in the month which will be Less formal non communion service

Our next service: Worship - With Holy Communion
Sunday 24th June 2018
At 11.30 am

SUE SAYS: Don't tell everyone that you were Self Taught—you might have been taught by a fool. (overheard at Refreshment time).

Do not be despondent when your hopes have been deferred,
And it seems your prayers have gone unheeded or unheard.
Do not be discouraged when your wish has not come true.
Never lose your faith. Be patient. Take the longer view.

Give God time. It's not for you to say just when and where
You want a thing to happen, for the answer to a prayer
Must sometimes be delayed because the Providential schemes
Are wider than the expectations of your dearest dreams.

So learn to wait and learn to trust and never cease to pray.
Often do we find there was a blessing in delay.

Matariki begins on 15 June in 2018. Matariki is the Māori name for the star cluster known as the Pleiades, and traditionally for Māori, when it appears, this signals the start of the Māori New Year. Many cultures recognise the logic of celebrating the New Year at the time of the turning of the season, after the end of the harvest at the winter solstice. Matariki may be translated as tiny eyes, or eyes of God. The Pleiades appears in the sky in June as the Southern Hemisphere winter months approach. The eyes are thought to watch over the land and its people. The appearance of Matariki signals a time of change and new growth. It is a time to reflect on the past and look ahead to the future.

Matariki is a time for New Zealanders to celebrate our history and unique place in the world and to learn from those who came before us. It is a celebration of our culture, language and people. Matariki is an appropriate time to publicly pray for life and growth as well to offer prayers of thanksgiving.

SERVICE READINGS THIS WEEK.

1 Samuel 17: 32-49 or
Psalm 20 or
2 Corinthians 5: 6-10, 14-17

Psalm 138 and Paul's sermon last Sunday, moved me greatly. I felt such warmth in the Church, God, I felt was really with us. I haven't been able to attend for several Sundays and it was like coming home, sharing time and a delicious lunch. Long may I be able to drive!
